Conduct While Using the Community Room

Users of the Community Meeting Room are advised that the Community Meeting Room is located within a library facility. Any person who acts in a way that disrupts library operations or creates a disturbance to other library customers while using the Community Meeting Room will be asked to modify that behavior. If the behavior continues, library staff may require the person/persons to leave the facility.

Users are responsible for set-up, take down, and clean-up. Users need to allow enough time within their reservation period to accomplish these tasks. Meeting rooms are to be returned to their original condition and configuration.

The serving of alcohol must be approved by the City of Redding and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Office at least thirty (30) days prior to the function date. Evidence of proper insurance is required prior to approval.
