January 6

It's all about dinosaurs with the reading of dino-mite stories at the Anderson Library. Each child will receive a dinosaur sticker project provided by First 5 Shasta.

January 13

West Valley High School National Honor Society, accompanied by West Valley Teacher Michelle O'Dell, will present storytime with "No, David!" Come meet these dynamic students who will share "David" stories and then finish off their presentation with a "Good Night" storytime. To accompany, we have a new pair of slippers or warm hat for each child. The West Valley students will assist the children with a sticker craft project provided by First 5 Shasta.

January 20

"The Jacket I Wear in the Snow" is the featured story. Each child will pick out a fleece throw blanket to take home and participate in a sticker craft project - both provided by First 5 Shasta.

January 27

Jeannette Mojica, West Valley High School Spanish Teacher, will read the story "Bear in Sunshine" in Spanish and English. Come meet delightful Jeannette and learn a few words in Spanish. Each child will participate in a craft project and receive a book provided by First 5 Shasta.
