Background

The Shasta Public Libraries offer a variety of spaces for individual and community use.

Purpose

The following policy applies to any library spaces that may be reserved.

Policy

It is the responsibility of the individual or group reserving the facility to read and adhere to this policy. Solicitation is not allowed in the library. The City assumes no responsibility for any property lost or stolen during an event, or any items left behind. Library Programs have priority over reservations.

Community Room: Redding and Burney

Hours of Availability

The Redding Library Community Room and the Burney Community Room may be used during hours that the library is open, and with prior approval, and additional conditions, the Community Rooms may be used outside of regular hours. A refundable check deposit may be required for use outside of regular hours with the approval of the supervising librarian and/or the Library Director.

Reserving the Community Meeting Room

Library programs have priority in the reservation process.

Individuals may reserve the Community Room by completing the online “Reserve a Room” application available via the library’s website at www.shastalibraries.org. Online reservations will be taken up to six months in advance and need to be made at least 24 hours in advance. Reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests are limited to two per month in order to provide availability to others. The Community Room accommodates up to 130 people.

Community Room Reservation Fees

Groups reserving the Community Room are subject to the following fees:

- For non-profit and government organizations: No charge for up to two hours; $50 flat rate fee for reservations over two hours.
- For private parties: $100 for up to two hours, and $25 for each hour thereafter.
- For commercial businesses: $165 for up to two hours, and $30 for each hour thereafter.
Reservation fees are due at the time of reservation. Reservations canceled more than 24 hours in advance of the event will receive a full refund. Reservations canceled within 24 hours or less of the event will be subject to a 50% cancellation fee.

Users of the Community Room are advised that the Community Room is located within a library facility. Any person who acts in a way that disrupts library operations or creates a disturbance to other library customers while using the Community Meeting Room will be asked to modify that behavior. If the behavior continues, library staff may require the person/persons to leave the facility.

Users are responsible for set-up, take-down, and clean-up. Users need to allow enough time within their reservation period to accomplish these tasks. Meeting rooms are to be returned to their original condition and configuration.

Food and beverages are permitted in the Community Room. Food and beverages are permitted. The serving of alcohol must be approved by the City of Redding and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Office at least thirty (30) days prior to the function date. Evidence of proper insurance is required prior to approval.
